

Visitor's Book - Unedited

November 2007 – So what can we say! The house is most cheerful, bright and warm. Each item usually expected is provided. A very comfortable and pleasant holiday home. At this time, being November, a very icy wind but beautiful sunny days in which to tour the area. Eating – try the Café de la Poste in the village – you will not be disappointed or during the day “Tapis” at Tapis over the border. Sincerely hope my comments will find us another booking in the future.

September 2007 - We have stayed 14 days in Serralongue and enjoyed it very much. Nice weather, beautiful surroundings; ideal place for those looking for peace. Thank you!

July 2007 - A lovely comfortable house with plenty of room for the two of us. We enjoyed the lovely fluffy towels but did find everything covered in white fluff - c'est la vie!

The weather has been fabulous - so hot it has been difficult sleeping at night.

Serralongue provides a great base to explore this end of the Pyrenees.

July 2007 - Lovely, comfortable house with every amenity. Weather has been glorious and we have been able to eat in the garden. Visited Port-Vendres and Collioure. Had an excellent dinner at the Bellevue in Prays de Mollo and lunched well at Tapis.

Hope to visit again before long.
